Canzada Shiver Newman (1816-1880), i33742

submitted by Donna Newman

Canzada was my third great-grandmother. She was the daughter of Abraham Shiver, a large landholder in Pulaski County, Georgia.

She married James P. Cherry in the mid-1830s. James died in about February 1838. They had one child together, William Jackson Cherry.

In about 1840, Canzada married Arthur Newman and they had 11 children together. She died on October 11th, 1880 and is probably buried in the same "old family burial ground" where Arthur was interred eight years later, now known as the Hunt Cemetery.

Her children with Arthur were:

1. Catherine, married William G. Hunt.
2. James, died in 1862 (Civil War), never married.
3. Abraham William, married 1) Lucy Fenn; 2) Mary Elizabeth "Mollie" Conner; A.W. was my 2nd great-grandfather.
4. Sarah Jane, married David Franklin Matthews
5. Georgia Ann, married Stephen Daniel
6. Susan, married John Kindred Partin
7. Anna, married W. Hardy Kinchen, died in December 1880 in typhoid epidemic
8. Nancy Caroline, married Remus Romulus Woods
9. Mary Rebecca, died in December 1880 in typhoid epidemic
10. Arthur John, married Emma Love, died in December 1880 in typhoid epidemic
11. Fanny Alice, married James Solomon Frink
